

Media Advisory
For Immediate Release

February 28, 2008

The Calgary Chamber of Commerce Presents:
*An Evening with Her Majesty Queen Noor of Jordan

(Calgary, AB) – As the leading forum for constructive dialogue on critical issues of local, provincial, federal and international importance, the Calgary Chamber of Commerce is proud to present An Evening with Her Majesty Queen Noor of Jordan on Tuesday, April 29th, 2008 with Presenting Sponsor Bayview Residences.

Speaking from experience Queen Noor will inspire an audience of Calgary business leaders as she shares her passionate and tireless efforts to address global peace-building, human rights, and conflict recovery issues.

“Queen Noor is a powerful example of commitment to humanitarianism and brings a unique perspective to the current climate in the Middle East,” says Heather Douglas, President and CEO, Calgary Chamber of Commerce. “We are proud to welcome Queen Noor as an international spokesperson for women, peace, and justice.”

Tickets for An Evening with Her Majesty Queen Noor of Jordan will be released to members of the Calgary Chamber of Commerce on March 3 and to future members of the Chamber on March 7. All tickets are available exclusively through Ticketmaster.

- WHAT: An Evening with Her Majesty Queen Noor of Jordan
- WHERE: Jack Singer Concert Hall, EPCOR Centre for the Performing Arts
205 8th Ave S.E.
Calgary, Alberta
- WHEN: Tuesday, April 29, 2008
7:00 p.m.
- TICKETS: Members - $125 on sale Monday, March 3
Future Members - $175 on sale Friday, March 7
Student offer - $35 (available at Ticketmaster outlets only)

-30-

For more information, please contact:
Elizabeth Leitch
Manager, Communications
Calgary Chamber of Commerce
(403) 750-0424